England Declares War on Porte and Other Natons Will Follow

DIPLOMATS DEPART.

Russian Troops Invade Sultan's Territory and Anglo-French Fleet Bombards Dardanelles.

London, Nov 5—All uncertainty regarding Turkey's position was ended today. The foreign office officially announced that England has declared war on Turkey and it is expected that this action will immediately be followed by France, Russia, Servia, Montenegro, and possibly by Belgium and Japan.

The Turkish government has withdrawn all her diplomatic representatives from Servia, England, Russia, and France ,and Russian troops have already invaded Turkey. while the Anglo-French fleet is bombarding the Dardanelles.

BACON ACCUSES GERMANY

Declares Invasion Of Belgium Violated Treaty With U. S.

New York, Nov. 5—Robert Bacon, former Secretary of State, issued a statement yesterday before sailing for England in which he said that, in violating the neutrality of Belgium, Germany broke a treaty which she had made with the United States when she signed Articles 1 and 2 of the second Hague conference, which stipulate that the territory of neutral powers shall be inviolate.

"Are we to suffer a nation to break a treaty with us on whatever pretext without entering at least a formal protest?" reads the statement" Will anyone contend that our neutrality imposes silence upon us under such conditions?

"Are the Hague conventions to become 'scraps of paper' without a single word of protest from this government? If the treaties which we made at The Hague are to be so lightly regarded then why not all our other treaties? As a matter of fact it is our solemn duty to protest against a violation of pledges formally entered into between this government and any other government and we assume a heavy moral responsibiliy when we remain silent.

"To justify a policy of silence by the assertion that 'we are fortunate in being safely removed from this danger that threatens European powers' and to urge that as a reason for us to sit still with hands folded is as weak as it is unwise."

SLEMP'S MAJORITY

Incomplete Returns Give Him a Lead of 500 to 700.

Richmond, Va. Nov. 5—Incomplete returns from the Ninth Congressional district show that C. Bascom Slemp Republican has been re-elected to Congress by a majority of 500 to 700. Democrats lost in several counties which were normally Democratic.

In all other districts Democrats were easy winners,, though the vote was unusually light.

Cruiser Reported Sunk.

London, Nov. 5.—The German cruiser Yorcke struck a mine and was sunk in Jahde Bay, near the mouth of the Weses, and her crew of 500 officers and men are lost, according to a dispatch received here from Amsterdam. The scene of the disaster is near Wilhlmhaven, a German naval base of importance.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The republicans elected senator, governor and state ticket in Ohio Tuesday. They were 13 seats in Congress. Statewide prohibition, special tax levy and woman suffrage were decisively defeated.

The eruption of Mount Vesuvius is increasing in violence. A new fissure has developed. Ashes are falling twenty miles away.

A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says the Berlin press states that eight German princes have been killed in the war, six of them between the ages of eighteen and twenty.

John Kean, former United States senator from New Jersey, died last night at Elizabeth, N. J., after a long illness.

Lawrence W. Sherman appears to have defeated Roger C. Sullivan for United States Senator from Illinois by the scant plurality of 4,600 votes. Returns from down state with close to 400 precincts still to be heard from, show that Sullivan was leading Sherman by about 3,600. At the rate of gain that Sherman has maintained for twenty-four hours over Sullivan—twenty to the precinct—this would mean that Sherman in the 400 missing precincts would be 8,000 votes ahead in the 2,778 precincts that constitute the down state territory. It will require the official canvass of the votes cast in Illinois —and probably a contest—before it is decided whether Sullivan or Sherman has been elected.

Four of the six states which voted Tuesday on prohibition, according to latest returns, decided to forbid the sale of alcoholic beverages in future and two voted to retain saloons. Ohio and California kept their saloons while Washington, Colorado, Oregon and Arizona closed theirs.

Two trained nurses have been summoned to the home of Mr and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, at Williamstown, Mass., and it is expected that President Wilson will become a grandfather sometime ths week.

Mexico, with two executives, had two capitals yesterday. Neither of them was Mexico City. General Carranza, who for several days has been at Puebla, between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, today ordered his cabinet ministers, with the archives of the government, to proceed there. The other capital is at Aguascalientes, scene of the recent conference of revolutionary chiefs. General Eulalio Gutierrez, elected by the convention as provisional president, officated at that city.

F. Augustus Heinze, copper king and financier, died last night at the home of Judge Nash Rockwood, in Saratoga, N. Y.

It is officially announced in Berlin that nineteen Russian transports have been sunk by the Turks and that these vessels carried 1,700 mines intended to be used in blockading Turkish waters, thus proving that Russia's intentions were hostile. It is also announced that the Russian troops have been successful in their first fights against the Turks in Trans-Caucasia.

The Japanese admiralty announced yesterday that the Austrian cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth had been sunk in the Bay of Kiaochau, that Fort Iltis, the principal point of defense at Tsingtau, had been silenced, and that Governor Meyer Waldeck, the German commander there, is reported to have been wounded. The Kaiserin Elizabeth was the chief Austrian warship in the Far East. When cruising she carried a crew of 424 men. The ship was bottled up in Kiaochau Bay when the Japanese fleet blockaded Tsingtau.

A Petrograd dispatch says: "The critical point in the German retreat has now been reached. The difficulty of living in the trenches in bitter weather has already begun, for a great portion of the German troops are not used to the severe cold. Cases of men being frozen to death are occurring even now in the trenches where water came in, because they have been dug in marshy soil. Now they are filled with ice. The Russians have the advantage of being hardened to cold."

GERMANS LEAVE EAST PRUSSIA

Whereabouts of Black Sea Fleet Unknown at Present Time.

BATTLE IS REPORTED

Russians Push Beyond Kielce—Capture 15,000 Soldiers, 200 Officers and Cannon and Machine Guns.

Petrograd, Nov. 5.—It is announced that the Russian Caucasian army which is invading Turkey has advanced several miles into Turkey and now occupies several villages.

No news is at hand regarding the operations of the Black Sea fleet, although rumors that a battle has taken place are current.

It is officially announced that the Germans are again withdrawing into East Prussia. It is declared that they are moving toward their original battle line between Lyck and Biala. Meanwhile the Russian advance beyond the Vistula continues. The Russians are also pushing beyond Kielce, which is now held by the Russians. In fighting there 15,000 soldiers, 200 officers and a number of cannon and machine guns were taken.

Defeats Proposed Amendments.

Dallas, Texx., Nov. 5.—All constitutional amendments were defeated in Texas yesterday. They were the initiative, referendum, and recall; increasing pay of State legislators, and permitting counties to build sea walls. Very few localities took the proposed straw vote on cotton acreage redection.

BABY FOR ADOPTON

A pretty, healthy baby about two months old, will be given for adoption to responsible party who can furnish references. Address Mrs. S. R. Dunkley, 100 W. Clay street, Richmond, Va.

A majority of not less than twenty, with the probability that this will be stretched to thirty, seems to be promised the Democrats in the House for the Sixty-fourth sesssion of Congress.

GERMANS IN THE PACIFIC

Eight Japanese War Ships Nearing Chilean Coast

San Francisco, Nov. 5—The victory of the German squadron over the British off the coast of Chile places a new aspect on the naval situation in the Pacific, it is pointed out by observers.

For the present at least it definitely shifts command of southern waters to the Germans, and until there has been a readjustment of forces will make itself felt in the movement of all cargoes between the Pacific coast and Europe.

Which way the Germans will elect to turn is speculation but they are free to move northward to the Panama Canal or to continue southward toward the Straits of Magellan and the route around the Horn.

At the same time the trade lanes between San Francisco, Puget Sound and the Orient already heavily policed by Japanese and British are declared to be clear of menace, and the allied patrols can move against the enemy with a definite objective.

The engagement accounts for all Gefman warships at large in the Pacific and east of the Suez except the Emden, whose repeated raids on British commerce in the Indian Ocean have been so costly.

Santiago Chile Nov. 5—A steam collier which has arrived at Valparaiso reports having seen eight Japanese warships at Easter Island in the Pacific about 2300 miles west of the Chilean coast. Easter Island belongs to the republic of Chile.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Company to Spend Ten Million Dollars in Improving in the South.

The belief of the management of Southern Railway Company that the business depression in the South, brought about by the effect of the European war on the market for cotton, is to be of short duration and that Southern progress will soon call for additional transportation facilities, is shown by the fact that work is being pushed on a comprehensive plan of improvement, which will greatly increase the carrying capacity of the Southern Railway system and which involves expenditures aggregating approximately $10,000,000, most of which is being paid out in the South for labor and materials and is thus contributing to the re-establishment of Southern prosperity. Funds for this work had fortunately been provided prior to the beginning of the war.

One of the most important features of the work now under way is the double-tracking of 75 miles of the main line in Virginia and North Carolina, which, when completed, will give the company a double track line from Washington, D. C., to Charlotte, N. C., with the exception of five short pieces of single track with an aggregate length of 67 miles and will make the total length of double track between Washington and Atlanta, 337 miles. Short pieces of double-track are also being built at Chattanooga and Memphis.

The double-track work being done north of Danville, Va., involves the construction of a new concrete viaduct, 900 feet long, across the Dan River.

As the volume of traffic that can be moved over a railroad is largely controlled by the capacity of its terminals, terminal facilities are being largely increased at several important points.

Entirely new receiving and gravity classification yards and local freight and storage yard, with roundhouse, coaling station, and other appurtenances, are being constructed just north of Birmingham, which the new yards will contain approximately 30 miles of track with a capacity of nearly 2,000 cars. New yards, similar in character to those at Finley, with a capacity of 1,000 cars, are being constructed just east of Memphis. At Richmond and South Richmond, Va., improvements are being made which will greatly facilitate the handling of traffic at that important point. Freight-handling facilities at Mobile, Ala., are being largely increased, and important improvements in freight, facilities at Atlanta and at other points are being made.

One of the most important of the terminal improvements is the new coal dock now being constructed at Charleston, S. C., on lands adjoining the Cooper River.

FIERCE FOREST FIRE.

Big Force Out to Fight Flames in in Pennsylvania.

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 5.—One of the largest forest fires visiting the Pen-Mar section in years broke out near High Rock yesterday afternoon and is raging fiercely. It is thought that the fire was started by a locomotive on the Western Maryland Railroad.

Nearly 200 men, including employes of the Western Maryland Railroad, residents of Pen-Mar and vicinity and farmers in the valley from as far as Edgemont and Midvale, have gathered on the mountain top and are fighting the flames.

Up to 7 o'clock last night the fire had not been checked and had burned over more than 200 acres of fine timber land. The fire has swept everything before it from High Rock, going southeast to Quirauk, and has penetrated into Frederick county.

BAVARIAN ARMY MEETS DEFEAT

Attempts of Invaders to Force Way to Dunkirk From Belgium.

HAVE LEFT OSTEND.

Germans Plan to Reach Sea by Another Route—Hundreds Drown When the Dykes Are Cut.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Inceasingly optimistic reports from the battle front are reaching military headquarters. The Germans have been decisively defeated in Belgium between Ostend and the French border. They are also being pressed back along the eastern frontier.

The report that General Von Kluck has been killed in action is revived again.

Paris, Nov. 5—Definite defeat of the Bavarian army which attempted to hack its way through to Dunkirk from northern Belgium is claimed by the Belgian army which bore the brunt of the battle.

The Germans, it is stated in dispatches from Havre the temporary Belgian capital have retired to entrenched lines to the west and extending inland from just south of Ostend.

The Germans are now concentrating on a new line, and their re-enforcements are being massed again around Ypres, Lille and Arras. It is believed they will endeavor to reach the sea from this section, where they will not be subject to flooding of the country.

It was the action of the Belgians in cutting the Ysey dykes that caused the German rout on the extreme left of the allied lines. Hundreds of men were drowned there.

British and French reserve troops have been sent to the assistance of the armies operating from Soissons north.

REVOLT IN SOUTH AFRICA

CUTS WIFE'S THROAT

York Man Crazed With Election Whiskey.

York, Pa, Nov 5—Crazed with drink given him on election day by political workers who had gotten him out of jail to vote, Elmer Goltwald, 42 years old, cut his wife's throat, inflicting fatal injuries and when an effort was made to arrest him, hacked at his own throat with the razor. The man's condition is serious.

The cutting took place in front of the Goltwald home, the man having waited for his wife when she returned from work at a local cigar factory. A dozen or more persons witnessed the attack, and Harry Lenwood a pedestrian struck the man with a brick as he sat upon the prostrate form of his wife hacking at her throat and one of her wrists.

When a half dozen officers arrived to arrest Goldtwald. he laughed and told them they were too late, at the same time inflicting several gashes in his throat.

IN THE LION'S DEN.

Strong Feature at Richmond Theatre Tomorrow Night.

The following is the story of the Lion's Den to be shown at the Richmond Theatre tomorrow:.

Theo. Reibeth, a medical student in strolling down the street, is attracted by a poster of Mlle. Aut Nissen saying that this celebrated moving picture star is to be seen in the theatre in a thrilling drama. He goes in to see the play and is so impressed with her appearance on the screen that he decides to try to meet her. He goes to the studio where she is making the pictures and through the good offices of a friend sees her in real life. He is introduced and the impression of her is such that he tries to find a way to meet her socially. When she is leaving the studio she drops her hand bag, which he finds. In it is a card giving her address. He goes to return the bag and spends a very pleasant time with her. He sees her several times after and each time his love grows stronger. She is very fond of animals and has in her apartment a private collection of lions which she shows to him. He is about to finish his studies as a doctor when he receives a letter from his brother telling him that through unfortunate investments their fortune has been wiped out. He is very much worried but Aut offers to lend him enough money to complete his studies. He accepts her offer and takes his degrees with high honors. Later he is at a reception and sees Aut flirting with another man. He protests very strongly and it causes a rupture that separates them. He does not see her for several years and has practically forgotten her existence. She, however, sees in one of the papers that he is to be married and sends him a note asking him to call. He makes the excuse to his wife that he has to go to see a patient. When he reaches the home of Mlle. Nissen she tells him that she has a surprise for him and he consents to be blind folded and led out of the room. Her jealousy has been aroused to such a degree that she has become irresponsible. She leads him to the lion's den and leaves him to the mercy of the beasts. He is terrorized but manages to escape although for a time it looked as if his last hour on earth had come. Escaping from the house he falls exhausted on the road and is picked up by some pedestrians and carried back into the house from which he had just come. When Mlle. Nissen sees the result of her attempt, she is stricken with remorse and makes the only restitution she considers will fit the case.

This intensely thrilling tragedy in natural colors is an exceptionally strong depiction of the results of a wild passion allowed to take its course uncurbed.

FATALITIES AT NEW YORK FIRE

Six Men Killed and a Dozeen Firemen Injured Early Today.

RESCUE 40 PERSONS

Spectacular Conflagration Destroys Four-Story Lodging House—Explosion of Naptha the Cause.

New York, Nov. 5.—Six men were killed and a dozen firemen injured in a spectacular fire which destroyed a four-story lodging house at 352 Eighth avenue early today. There were fifty-two men packed in the lodging house stalls when the fire broke out, and forty of them were rescued by being carried down ladders or swung across to the roofs of adjoining buildings.

The cause of the fire has not been definitely determined, but the firemen believe it may have been started by an explosion of naptha, as they their beds on the fourth floor of the had been cleaning beds with this product.

The blaze started in a back room and spread to the stairway, cutting off the escape of those trapped in the building.

Firemen rushed to the second and third floors, and were beating their way through the flames when there was a terrific explosion.

Furniture was blown clear out of the windows, and a dozen firefighters were knocked down bruised, and seriously burned.

Three lodgers were found dead in their beds on the fourth floor of the building. Two were found on the third, and another near a window on the same floor.

All six bodies were so badly charred that identification was impossible.

BATTLE IN THE PACIFIC.

Two Thousand British Officers And Sailors Killed.

Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 5.—Officers of the German cruiser Schrannorst expressed the belief that nearly 2,000 British officers and sailors had been killed in the naval engagement off Coronel. The British cruiser Monmouth, which was sunk, carried a complement of 678 officers and men, and the cruiser Good Hope, the flagship of Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock, which is believed to have gone down immediately after the battle, carried 900 officers and men. In addition the British cruiser Glasgow and the transport Otranto were struck by shells from the German ships and damaged.

If, as believed, the fire-stricken and shell-ridden cruiser Good Hope went to the bottom in the gale that was raging during the battle, it is certain that Sir Christopher Craddock, who was commander of the British squadron in Mexican waters, lost his life.

SENATOR STONE'S VIEWS.

Says Result Tuesday as Endorsement of Wilson.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Senator William J. Stone, of Missouri, chairman of the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee, considers the result of the election an emphatic indorsement of the Wilson administration. He says:

"The Republicans have been saying that if they could become united they could lick us. They were united everywhere and the contest generally was a clean cut fight between the Democrats standing by Wilson's administration and the Republicans opposing it. The vote of the Progressive party seems to have almost completely disappeared. With Democratic majorities reduced, the fight between the two parties in Congress will be interesting. The Democrats will be on their mettle."

A bazaar will be given by the ladies of the Second Baptist Church November, 5, 6 and 7, at 407 King Street, from 9 o'clock a. m. to 10 o'clock p. m. 2-3t.

COTTON LOAN MOVEMENT

Alexandrians Decide Not to Subscribe to This Southern Staple.

While Alexandria bankers and business men are in thorough sympathy with the cotton loan movement, which provides for the loaning of $135,000,000 on cotton warehouse certificates based on cotton at six cents a pound, a decision has been reached not to subscribe for any portion of the loan.

The Richmond committee which had the subscriptions in charge asked the Alexandria banks and business men to take $50,000 of the loan, $25,000 to be raised from the three national banks and the balance from business houses.

As the local banks are taking care of their business without the aid of emergency certificates and at the same time are carrying a considerable loan for the city without resorting to the issuance of bonds at this time, it was decided to keep the money in Alexandria without sending it farther south.

RAZING OLD LANDMARK

Fayette Street Depot of Washington Southern Railway is Being Demolished.

The old frame structure on the northeast cornor of Cameron and Fayette streets, used for many years as the local depot of the Washington Southern Railway, is being removed and by the end of the week this old landmark will have been obliterated.

This building was erected during the latter part of the seventies, and was used by the railway company up to 1904, when the tracks were laid around the city and the present union passenger depot erected.

About the year 1876 people residing on St. Asaph street from King street to the confines of the city began to protest against tracks being used on that thoroughfare and proceedings were instituted in the court to compel the company to remove the same. The Alexandrians won, and the local depot which was then in the building occupied by M. Reuben and Sons, northwest corner of King and St. Asaph streets, was removed to the northeast cornor of Cameron and Fayette streets.

This building has been in an unsightly condition since it ceased to be used as a railway station.

It has been on fire twice during the past few weeks.

ACCIDENT TO AVIATORS

A. C. Beach and S. Mills Rescued From Damaged Aeroboat in River.

A. C. Beach the aviator and his assistant, Simon Mills, in an experimental flight yesterday morning off Giesboro Point a short distance north of Alexandria, came near making a disastrous landing as the result of a break in the wire used to stop the engine of their aeroboat.

Beach was trying to effect a landing at the Eleventh street wharf in Washington when the break in the wire was discovered, so he turned the craft and started down the Potomac at about 60 miles an hour. Knowing that it was impossible to stop the engine, he brought the aeroboat down on the broad stretch of water off the point.

The craft struck the water with such force that the bottom was torn off. The wings kept it afloat, and Beach and Mills were rescued by Capt. Matthew Kersey, of the tug Herbert. Lieut Dean, of the harbor police towed the aeroboat to the wharf with the patrol launch Sylvester.

ATTEMPTS TO SCARE THE UNITED STATES.

Since the principal nations of Europe embarked in war each has endeavored to stir up distrust in the United States of its adversary and make it appear that the warring nations have sinister designs on America. Germany has attempted to cause the United States to look with suspicion upon Japan, while Englishmen have imagined they could start a scare in this country by suggesting that after the present war Germany would defy our Monroe doctrine and carry out certain plans in South America.

Edmond Laskine, a French economist says:

"The fate of the United States also is being decided on the battlefields of Belgium and Poland. If by the impossible Germany triumphs, American security will cease to exist."

The writer adds:

"The Germans already have decided what name they will give the new world when they conquer. It will be known thereafter as Deutsch-America. The German penetration there already has created a situation full of peril for the United States. Germany has been working feverishly for the last few months to secure an economic conquest of that country and control the great republic through the activities of its vast pre- war organization, the Deutsch-Amerikanischer Wirtschaftsverband headed by Herr Ballin.

"It is also an open secret that Germany is seeking to incite Japan against America, as well as intriguing with China and Mexico, where she openly favored Huerta by providing him with arms and ammunition.

"The Kaiser's designs on the Panama Canal are plainly shown by the little-known brochure, 'the Panama Canal as an educator,' by Admiral Valois published in Berlin this year, and widely distributed in Germany.

"Admiral Valois therein says that despite pacific protestations the Monroe Doctrine is interpreted in America in an aggressive sense, but American diplomacy would make a great mistake to continue to use insolent language in this respect, because the Panama Canal constitutes a particularly sensitive point, and henceforth it will be easy to bring the United States to her senses by striking her there."

PROGRESSIVES ABOUT TO VANISH.

The showing made last Tuesday by the political organization which has for some time been groomed by former President Roosevelt indicates that the colonel and his theories are ceasing to attract attention. He has anticipated this, but he prefers to remain in the limelight, and recently he caused some tremor among some people by alleging that he saw the plans of two European nations now at war to seize New York and San Francisco, upon which they purposed to make levies in order to raise money to enter the conflict then seen to be inevitable.

But few persons took the matter seriously, as many reasons could be adduced to show the impracticability of such a procedure.

Roosevelt, however, is determined to keep the statement he made fresh before the public, and he will be one of the first persons called to testify before the proposed commission to investigate the question of the military and naval preparedness of the United States, if such a commission is named by Congress the coming winter.

LAYING THE BRICKS.

Work of Improving North Lee Street, Proceeding Rapidly.

The work of laying vitrified bricks on Lee street, between King and Cameron, is now in progress, and will probably be completed by the close of next week.

The square between Cameron and Queen streets will also be improved, and roadway has been partially prepared for the new work. Curbing has been placed in position on this square.

By the time the snow begins to fly Alexandria will have two more squares of modern improvements. When the work referred to above shall have been completed Lee street will have four squares of vitrified brick roadway.

SUNDAY BASEBALL ILLEGAL

Sunday baseball in the District of Columbia is illegal

Associate Justice Charles H. Robb, of the Court of Appeals handed down an opinion of this effect today in the litigation instituted by Samuel S. Edmonston against Dstrict authorities to prevent the latter from interfering with Sunday games at Andrem's Baseball Park.

Justice Gould of the District Supreme Court, had held that Sunday baseball was legal, and the District Commissioners carried the case to the uper court on the contention that the regulation was reasonable and not disirminatory.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR BABY

Mrs. Frick Asks Court to Help Her Get 6-Weeks-Old Girl.

To regain possession of her 6-weeks old baby, taken from her and hidden she alleges, by her husband, George Frederick Frick, an employe of the Department of Agriculture in Washington, Mrs. Lucille Burton Frick appealed to the Supreme Court of the District yesterday for a writ of habeas corpus.

Justice Stafford ordered a writ to issue, directing the husband to produce the baby, a girl, in court.

Mrs. Frick tells the court that she was in great stress of mind, as the doctor had told her that the baby should be fed every two hours. She says she does not know where the baby is hidden, and asserts that the child's life is being imperilled.

Mrs. Frick tells the court that her husband is a man of violent temper and alleges that on October 31, while he had a weapon on his person, she being in great fear he forced her to sign for the execution of a lease on property in Alexandria county, Va., which she says they do not own and have no right to lease. MAJOR COURTNEY DEAD.

Former Grand Master of Masons Dies in Richmond.

Richmond, Nov. 4.—Major Alfred R. Courtney, for more than half a century a leading member of the local bar, was paralyzed Tuesday night and died last night at the Virginia Hospital.

Major Courtney was for one term grand master of Masons in Virginia.

He served in the Confederate army from the beginning till the end of the conflict.

Major Courtney was eighty-one years old.

DECISION AFFIRMED.

Supreme Court Disposes of Test Case in Jamestown Gambling Raid.

Richmond, Nov. 5.—The last of the Jamestown racing track gambling cases was disposed of in the Supreme Court of Appeals Monday afternoon late. The court refused to interfere in the verdict of the trial court.

The case was that of Cobe against the Commonwealth. Cobe was one of the bookmakers caught in the raid led by Baldwin's men sometime ago. He was charged with operating a book and laying odds on the races—in other words, he was engaged in gambling in defiance of the law.

Taken before a magistrate, Cobe was given six months in jail and fined $100 and costs, and from that decision he appealed to the Circuit Court for Norfolk county. It was in the nature of a test case, Messrs. Willcox and Hicks representing the defense.

The Circuit Court heard the case and made the punishment six months in jail and a fine of $500 and costs, adding $400 to the amount of the fine.

From that decision the case was taken to the Supreme Court of Appeals on a petition for a writ of error and supersedeas. The court now hands down an order refusing to disturb the verdict of the court below, and Cobe will have to pay the fine and serve the time in the county jail.

WIFE CONTESTS SUIT.

She Won Separation Suit in Boston —He Obtained Divorce in Virginia.

Richmond, Nov. 5.—An appeal and supersedeas was issued yesterday in the Supreme Court of Appeals, in the case of Kelly against Kelly, from the Circuit Court for Alexandria county. The case is rather unusual in many respects. The record shows that the couple were married in Boston in 1900. Two years later the wife was forced to leave her husband, as she alleges, because of his cruel treatment.

Later, she brought suit for separation in the courts of Suffolk county, and succeeded in her cause. James A. Kelly, the husband, was ordered to pay her $35 a month, and this he did for some time. Last year he moved to Virginia and began a suit for divorce, alleging that his wife had deserted him. A letter was sent by the man's counsel to her, asking her to come to Virginia and live with him. She refused. The suit for divorce was completed and a decree was rendered in favor of the husband. The only defense made by the wife was the record of the court in Massachusetts. This did not prevent the decree being given the husband.

Counsel for Mrs. Kelly then took the case to the Supreme Court of Appeals, where the writ was issued halting the issuance of the decree of the court below till the case shall have been reviewed.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

New Law Makes Children go to School.

Richmond, Nov. 5.—Under the provisions of the compulsory education law approved in Richmond and Henrico county Tuesday, all children between eight and twelve years old will be required to attend school for not less than twelve weeks every year, regardless of the wishes of their parents.

The law was approved by a vote of 3,080. Only 279 men voted against it. The law is for the protection of the children of these 279 men.

Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru Ind., was troubled with belching sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by all dealers.

CANADA FEARS ATTACK

Possible Bombardment Of Canadian Coast By German Ships Creates Alarm.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 5.—The presence of five German warships in the Pacific, on the coast off Chile, and the probability that two more, the Dresden and the Emden, are on their way to join them creates considerable apprehension for the safety of Canadian cities on the Pacific coast. To meet the situation the naval authorities at Ottawa were in conference all forenoon. Measures of some sort, it is said will likely be taken though what they are has not been determned.

The fact that the German warships had been gathered into one fleet was taken here as a clear indication that Germany had perfected arrangements for coaling the fleet and it was felt that little could be done to round up this fleet until British and Japanese warships now at Tsingtau are relieved.

It is feared that the German fleet may steam north and under threat of long distance bombardment, attempt to levy tribute on the city of Victoria The only danger to which the fleet would be subject in carrying out such an enterprise, it is pointed out would be an attack from the two submarines which Canada bought from Chile at the opening of the war and which are stationed in the waters about Vancouver Island.

The naval authorities are especially disquieted by the fact that the Germans have been exceedingly well informed as to the movementes of British cruisers. This has been demonstrated on several occasions, especially by the encounter of the two fleets off the coast of Chile, when the Germans outnumbered the British.

ALL BUT ONE KILLED

Bridge On Italian Railroad Washed Out

Messina, Sicily, Nov. 5—A railroad train running between here and Palermo was wrecked this morning. The reports received up to the present time declare that all the passengers on board with one expection, and all the members of the train crew lost their lives.

A bridge on the line had been washed out by floods. Unaware of this condition, the train crashed down into the river bed and the cars were overturned in the water.
